How to Make Pop-up Cards

Make one of the pop-up cards, each featuring an egg with a bird inside.

1. Cut out the parts.
2. Fold the egg and the hinge. The egg gets folded in half, so that the coloured sides face outward.
3. All of the dotted lines on the pop-up hinge also get folded, in the same direction, as shown on the card.
4. Glue the parts together, either with a glue stick, white glue, or hot glue. Hint: The first step in gluing is to establish the position for the pop-up hinge, which can be found easily if the egg and hinge folds are all at 90° angles. Glue the hinge tabs, and place the hinge inside the egg.
5. Once the hinge is securely in place, glue the bird to it, so that the bird fits entirely inside the egg when closed, and so that the bird is high enough on the hinge to ensure that it opens and closes without binding.

Would you like twelve more pop-up card templates? A poster with various bird eggs, to scale? A memory/matching game that features birds and their eggs alongside with information cards about birds' parental habits? Check out our full Bird Egg Activity Pack.
